On initial consultation, we charge a one-off initial consultation fee of £100, which is non-refundable. This fee is regardless of continuation or discontinuation of your instructions.

Any fixed fee as in the Fees Table, will cover our services on your instructions in respect of your immigration matter. This includes all attendances and written and telephone correspondence, checking on the progress of your matter and informing you about the progress.

The money you pay to us is treated as office money and will be paid into the office account. However, our agreed fee and hourly rates are exclusive of Value Added Tax, disbursement, court fee, the counsel fee and printing, photocopies and postage fees, costs of instructing experts, i.e. medical experts or interpreters. You will be advised about any additional disbursements when necessary.

These fees also do not cover the cost of submitting a new application, and appeal or a judicial review in the event that the application has been refused, or ad hoc support and advice.

For fixed fee arrangements, payment must be made fully at the outset, unless a separate arrangement for the payment has been agreed. If you cannot afford to pay our fee in full at the time of instructing us in relation to your matter, you may be able to pay part of the fee at the time of instructing us and the rest of the fee should be paid within 3 months.

Our fees relating to Employment Law are fixed fees starting from £100 excluding VAT for initial 1 hour assessment of your employment issue with our solicitors.

After reviewing your documents and advising you on your claim, we will provide you with a written quote for the agreed work to be done. This fee will not change except the original information we are given is shown to be inaccurate or if there are other development in your case or your circumstances change.

We are committed to the Alternative Dispute Resolution process, using procedures such as mediation, ACAS Early Conciliation and negotiation rather than litigation to resolve disputes.

One of the advantages we give to our Employment Tribunal clients is a fixed fee which is agreed upfront before any work starts. Litigation can be very costly but with our fixed fee pricing you will know exactly how much you will have to pay, depending on the complexity of the case. If your case is not suitable for a fixed fee, we will explain why that is so.

At times it may be necessary for us to instruct a Barrister or a medical expert to support your claim. The cost of these services would be additional to our fees.

Most Employment Tribunal cases are completed within 1 year, depending on the complexity of the claim however, very complex claims could take years to complete.
